Changes in Policies and Procedures—The Board reserves the right to make changes in its fees, policies, and procedures at any time and cannot assume responsibility for giving advance notice thereof. Cancellation of Examination—Should the American Board of Nuclear Medicine in its sole discretion cancel or as a result of events beyond its control be unable to administer its examination at the appointed date, time and location, the Board is not responsible for any expense the candidate may have incurred in order to be present at the examination.

Examination of Candidates with Disabilities—The American Board of Nuclear Medicine supports the intent of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Please notify the Board in writing with details concerning your disability at the time you submit your initial application to take the certifying examination. Documentation of the disability is required and must be submitted prior to consideration of request for accommodation for disability. Retroactive claims will not be considered. The Board reserves the right to verify your disability. Applicants requiring such accommodation must contact the Board no later than July 1 of the year the applicant wishes to take the examination and request copies of the necessary procedures and form.
