New ABNM Website

The ABNM will launch a new website in the spring. It will have a freshened look-and-feel. But more important, the new website will be based on a more modern architecture which will allow for more facile updating.

One of the important features of the new website will be proper recording credits from the CME Gateway. Many of the problems with the old site will be corrected, but we still expect some problems to exist. Some of the larger boards beta test website changes with a group of diplomates larger than all of us. We depend on the diplomates alerting us to problems. When the new website goes live, if you discover any problems, please contact us at abnm@abnm.org.

The screenshot shows the ABNM website interface. At the top left is the ABNM logo and name. To the right is contact information: 4555 Forest Park Boulevard, Suite 119, St. Louis, MO 63108, 314.367.2225, and ABNM@ABNM.org. Below this is a navigation menu with links: About, Residents, Diplomates, Exams, Documents, Donate, My Profile. The main content area features a large 'ABNM' heading and a message: 'The old ABNM website -- has been updated.' Below this is a yellow banner with the ABNM logo and contact details. To the right is a 'Log In' form with fields for Email and Password, and buttons for 'Log In' and 'Forgot Password?'. Below the login form are links for 'Create Account' and 'Resend Activation'. At the bottom, there are sections for 'Nuclear Medicine' and 'Mission Statement', each with a brief description. A search bar is located at the bottom right.

The Board feels it needs to keep diplomates more adequately informed about the status of their MOC progress through e-mail updates. Shortly after the new website goes live, if you have a gap in MOC requirements, you will receive an e-mail reminder every two months. At the beginning of each year, everyone will receive an e-mail identifying gaps from the prior year if any and the MOC requirements for the new year.
